

GILES RICHARD SAMUEL CHAPMAN (b 20.11.65, British) – curriculum vitae

- Address 2 Peacock Yard, Iliffe Street, London SE17 3LH
Tel: 020 7708 5818/ 07721 650766
- Jan 1994 Freelance journalist, editor, copywriter, editorial consultant, broadcaster Extensive writing, commissioning, project and budget managing, and consulting for newspapers, magazines, agencies and radio/TV. Regular contributor to Daily Telegraph, Independent, Financial Times Automotive World, Express. Edited magazines for IPC Magazines, Haymarket Publishing, Daily Telegraph. Editor of Moving Objects, car design book for Royal College of Art. Author of Cars Time Forgot book
- Also established Chapman Loxley Media Ltd in June 1998 to produce and publish client magazines. Clients in motor sport, theatre, business sectors
- Oct 1992 Features editor, Autocar & Motor magazine to Dec 1993 Wrote, commissioned and edited features, special issues, news, edited two regular columns. Circulation is c80,000 weekly
- Jan 1991 Editor, Classic and Sportscar magazine to Sept 1992 Took over as editor of Haymarket's biggest classic car title. Circulation is over 96,000 monthly. Manage eight-strong team
- Jul 1989 Editor, Your Classic magazine to Dec 1991 Launched and edited Haymarket's second classic car title, based on a redundant acquired magazine. Circulation rises from 39,000 to 52,000. Also spell as Group Editor of this and AutoClassic as additional title was re-launched
- Oct 1985 Editorial assistant, Staff writer and Assistant Editor, to Jul 1989 Classic and Sportscar magazine Ultimately jointly responsible for all production, sub-editing, proof-reading and news writing. Also commissioned writers and photographers, organised features, edited magazine sections including book reviews
- Jan 1984 Archivist, Ludvigsen Associates Ltd to Sept 1985 Set up commercial photographic and reference library. Experience in market research, data analysis, international consulting and communications
- Freelance While employed on Classic and Sportscar magazine, wrote for the Sunday Times, Sunday Telegraph, Elle Decoration, Quarto Books, had own column in Autocar & Motor magazine
- Training Journalism and the Law (1986); News Writing, Advanced Sub-Editing (1987); News Editing (1988); Editorial Management (1990); Management (1992)
- Awards Jet Media Excellence Awards: Special Award for Autocar centenary issue 1995, Motoring Writer of the Year, general publications (feature in Friends of the Earth magazine) 1996
- Business Established and ran successful mail order enterprise as sideline, 1997-98